

EMA™ Biography

Kevin Hecht

Vice President, Sales

Kevin Hecht has several years of business development experience in the technology, digital publishing, and health care industries. Prior to joining Enterprise Management Associates, Kevin was a corporate area manager for NetLibrary, a digital publishing firm in the business-to-business space, and was a territory manager for PhysioLogics, a nutraceuticals and homeopathic products company whose clients included physician practices and other healthcare providers. Since joining EMA in 2001, Kevin has led the sales and account management functions and is responsible for sales planning and leadership of marketing programs. Kevin's strong analytical and problem solving skills help bring the right EMA resources to each client engagement.
